MEMBER'S PERSONAL ATTENTION

The Honorable Lauren Boebert
U.S. House of Representatives
1609 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Representative Boebert,

As you know, on March 10, 2021, the Committee on Ethics (Committee) received information offered as a complaint naming you as a respondent.

Pursuant to House Rule XI, clause 3(k)(2) and Committee Rule 16(d), the Committee voted on a motion to establish an investigative subcommittee and forward the complaint to that subcommittee for its consideration. In accord with Committee Rule 26(k), we hereby notify you that the motion failed, and an investigative subcommittee was not established. Because Committee Rule 16 provides for no specific further action, the Committee will not further review the complaint.

It is not our intention to release this letter publicly unless you make public statements regarding this matter that are inconsistent with the spirit and purpose of this letter. If you have any questions, please contact Tom Rust, the Committee's Staff Director and Chief Counsel, at (202) 225-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch
Chairman

Jackie Walorski
